

WEEK 4

FRIDAY FUN FACTS

The smallest bat lives in Central Africa, it is just 4 cm (1.5 inches) long and has a wingspan of 12.5 cm (about 5 inches)

The world's oldest piece of chewing gum is 9,000 years old.

When your face blushes, the lining in your stomach turns red too.

All the American flags placed on the moon are now white due to radiation.

People shed 600,000 skin particles every hour.